

Module on Food/Nutrition Security and Public Policy

Conceptualized by Karnataka Comprehensive Nutrition Mission

Taught in Mount Carmel College, Bangalore, academic year 2017-18

Module on Food/Nutrition Security and Public Policy is being taught as an elective subject under the Multi-Disciplinary Course in choice based credit system as specified by UGC.

Dr Shanta Maria, Dean and Associate Professor, Department of Home Science coordinated the course under the able guidance of Dr Arpana, Principal, Mount Carmel College, Bangalore.

Faculty of four Departments participated in this Multi-Disciplinary Course -
1) Home Science 2) Nutrition 3) Political Science and 4) Economics.

Ms Mary Regi
Assistant Professor and
Coordinator, Department of
Nutrition & Dietetics

Dr Sundarvalli
Associate Professor and
HOD, Department of Home
Science

Dr Sangeetha Pandey
Associate Professor and
HOD, Department of
Nutrition & Dietetics

Dr V Padma
Assistant Professor and
Coordinator, Department of
Nutrition & Dietetics

Ms Lakshmi Jithendran
Assistant Professor and Coordinator,
Department of Home Science

Ms Sauda Samreen
Assistant Professor and Coordinator,
Department of Home Science

Ms Alice Mathew
Assistant Professor and Coordinator,
Department of Political Science

A total of 21 students from the 3rd Semester Post Graduate in MA/MSc., MCom, and MCA opted for the course.

The students expressed great interest in the programme and were eager to be part of the solution.

This course has laid the foundation for structuring a Post Graduate Course in Community Nutrition and Public Health to be introduced during the academic year 2018-19.

MOUNT CARMEL COLLEGE, BANGALORE

<http://www.mountcarmelcollegeblr.co.in>

Students of the Multi-Disciplinary Course "Food/Nutrition Security and Public Policy"

Guest Faculty- Dr Sadhana Bhagwat, Public Health Expert, New Delhi taking a class

Guest Faculty-Smt. Veena S. Rao, IAS, (Retd.), Advisor, KCNM taking a class

The first batch students of Food/Nutrition Security and Public Policy in Mount Carmel College with Smt. Veena S. Rao